A webinar on the Global Network on Probation and Parole (GNPP)

Five Regions, One Network:
Probation and Parole Around the World

Monday 7 December 2026 - 14:30–15:45 CET
(08:30 New York, Bogotá, Lima | 16:30 Nairobi, Kampala, Amman | 20:30 Bangkok, Jakarta)

Online via Zoom

Probation and parole are expanding worldwide as alternatives to imprisonment. Hear from experts across five regions on the latest developments, newly published research and examples from practice, alongside the voice of lived experience.

Find out what the Global Network on Probation and Parole, now more than 150 members strong, offers and how to join, and look ahead to the World Congress on Probation and Parole in Riga in 2028.

Speakers include:

Experts across Penal Reform International's team at HQ, Africa and MIddle East

Jana Špero Kamenjarin,
Secretary General, Confederation of European Probation (CEP)

Chontit Chuenurah
Thailand Institute of Justice

Selene Pineda Neisa
UN Latin American Institute for the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders

Piet Broenland,
Lived experience coordinator,
Probation service, Dutch Salvation Army
(Leger des Heils)

Imants Jurevičius
Head of the State Probation Service of Latvia

Register here and indicate your interpretation needs

Apply here to be part of the Global Network on Probation and Parole

PENAL REFORM INTERNATIONAL