

Global Prison Trends: developments and challenges in penal policy

Thursday 21 May, 2.20 – 3.10, Conference Room M7

At this side-event delegates can hear from expert panelists about some of the key global trends in the use and practice of imprisonment.

The panel will also present some of the pressing challenges facing states that wish to organise their penitentiary system in accordance with international norms and standards.

Penal Reform International's new annual publication 'Global Prison Trends 2015' will be presented.

Photo: © Fairfax Media.

Setting the scene on crime and prisons
Enrico Bisogno, Team Leader Crime Statistics, UNODC

Presentation of PRI's 'Global Prison Trends 2015'
Alison Hannah, Executive Director,
Penal Reform International

The impact of drug control on criminal justice systems: where to now
Marie Nougier
Senior Research and Communications Officer
International Drug Policy Consortium

Corrections in peacekeeping
Lipi Chowdhury, Coordinator of Corrections Team,
Criminal Law and Judicial Advisory Service, UN
Department of Peacekeeping Operations (DPKO)

Q & A Session

Moderated by Andrea Huber, Penal Reform International