

Photo credit ©WHO/Fadi Merouah

COVID-19 in prisons: vaccinations and responses

Side event at the UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

17 May 2021, 13:10 - 14:00 CEST. Register: bit.ly/prison-vaccinations

Opening Remarks

Dr Nino Berdzuli,
Divisional Director Country
Health Programmes, WHO
Regional Office for Europe

Olivia Rope,
Executive Director,
Penal Reform International

Mr Andrés Finguerut
Chief, Drug Prevention and
Health Branch, United Nations
Office on Drugs and Crime

Setting the background and context of places of detention: Global Prison Trends 2021

Triona Lenihan, Penal Reform International

Addressing infectious diseases in places of detention: Updated Comprehensive Package of Interventions

Dr Ehab Salah, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

An overview of vaccination against COVID-19 in detention settings: Why people living and working in detention facilities should be included in COVID-19 vaccination plans?

Dr Filipa Alves da Costa, Consultant, WHO Regional Office for Europe

Challenges and opportunities for implementing COVID-19 vaccination in detention facilities

Morocco

Moderated by Luciana Pol, Center for Legal and Social Studies (CELS) Argentina