

Impact of Gender-Based Violence on Health among People in Prisons and other Closed Settings

Hybrid CCPCJ Side Event - organized by UNODC HIV/AIDS Section

Tuesday, 14th May 2024

OPENING REMARKS

- Mr. Justice Tettey, PhD, Chief, Drugs, Laboratory and Scientific Services Branch, UNODC

SPEAKERS

Moderator: Dr. Ehab Salah, Advisor, Prison health, UNODC

- Mr. César A. V. Bonamigo, Minister Counsellor and Deputy Permanent Representative, Permanent

Mission to the International Organizations in Vienna, Brazil, on behalf of the Group of Friends of

UNODC HIV/AIDS Section

- Prof. Marie Claire Van Hout, International Consultant, UNODC
- Mr. Vitchavud Suppipat, Director of Foreign Affairs Sub-Division, Thailand
- Mr. Jerome Mangelinckx, Global Policy Manager, Penal Reform International

This event will advocate for the need to address gender-based violence and its impact on health among people in prisons and other closed settings, while sharing country experiences and good practices.

TIME AND PLACE

May 14th 2024
14:10-15:00 CET
VIC, M building, Room MOE100 and online (click here)

